Lists

Clicking on the List button will show you any public lists as well as any lists that you have produced.

To access a public list, just click on the link and the list of titles will appear. To create your own list, you will need to be logged on. Lists may be useful for keeping a record of titles you find in the catalogue but cannot borrow out because you have reached your limit.